11th Shito Ryu Karate & Kobudo Bo Championships

CHILDREN, CADETS, JUNIORS & SENIORS

6th – 7th June, 2026 (Saturday, Sunday)

Sport hall “Monor Városi Sportcsarnok” Monor, Hungary

Dear Shito Ryu Karate friends,

First, allow me to reflect on the previous championships. The 10th ESHRKF Championships were held in Regensburg, Germany. A total of 492 competitors from 22 countries took part, with 682 individual starts.

The individual and team performances in the disciplines of kata, kumite, and kobudo bo showed increased participation and performance levels, which is a significant success for our organization. There was a clear sense of dedication and determination, contributing to the high sporting level of the entire event.

We sincerely thank the organizers for successfully hosting the event.

Our goal must be the continuous improvement of the quality of our championships – both in terms of sports performance and organizational standards.

From the bottom of my heart, I wish all participants and the Hungarian organizers much sporting success and joy in both participating in and organizing our championships.

Thank you for coming to Budapest, Hungary.

Dear Karate friends,

It is a great honour for us to organize our 11th Shito ryu & Kobudo Bo Championships.

Also, it is our privilege to be the Chairman of the Organizing Committee for these Championships and we are confident that this edition will be a very successful one. It is an honor for Hungary to host the competition this year, and we will do everything we can to ensure that it is a high-quality, professional event.

We are sure that the countries that are already part of the ESSHRF will honour the 11th edition of our Championships with numerous competitors, and that we will also attract new members.

The last edition of our European Championships has shown us the very good level of proficiency in Shito Ryu Karate and a very high number of participants.

I wish to everyone good luck and many results at the 2026 edition of the ESSHRF Championships!

Thank you.

Budapest - SHORT PRESENTATION

Hungary's capital, Budapest, is one of Central Europe's most exciting and dynamically developing metropolises. Situated on both banks of the Danube, the city uniquely combines rich historical heritage with a modern urban lifestyle. Visitors can explore world-famous landmarks such as the Parliament, Buda Castle, and Heroes' Square, as well as enjoy a vibrant cultural scene, charming cafés, and a lively nightlife.

Budapest is not only a historical and cultural hub but also a leading venue for sports and international events. Budapest is also renowned for its thermal baths and wellness culture, offering superb opportunities for relaxation to both participants and spectators.

In the nearby town of Monor, where the competition will take place, wine weeks will be held simultaneously with the event, offering a unique local cultural experience for visitors.

The harmonious blend of tradition and modernity, outstanding infrastructure, and unforgettable experiences make Budapest and its region a perfect choice for any international sporting event.
